Nicholas started as a runner at Crow TV and already had a full series of mixing credits within 18 months. Creative Dubbing Mixer, Sound Editor and Audio Engineer, he specialises in all areas of Audio Post Production for both short form and longform media. Fully efficient in Pro Tools, capable of working in both 5.1 and stereo alongside a variety of mixing consoles, Nicholas has an in-depth knowledge of DSP plug-ins, local VO recording and ISDN recording equipment as well as additional audio software. With strong experience in a busy Post Production TV environment, supported by a keen strong technical Broadcast knowledge, his passion is mixing, recording, creating and manipulating all things audio. Nicholas has worked with a variety of delivery platforms and channel specifications, and his key genres include factual entertainment, sitcom and - his favourite – documentary.
